

NEWS FROM THE CITY CHURCHES

The Swedenborg House at the World's Fair will be dedicated at 4 o'clock this afternoon with appropriate services. Addresses will be made by the Reverend Theodore F. Wright of Cambridge, Mass., on "Emancipated Swedenborg," and by the Reverend L. P. Merces of Cincinnati on "The New Church."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK.

"Ways of Consecrating Ourselves to Our Country." (Rom. viii, 1-7; 1 Peter II, 13-17.)

BY AMON R. WELLS.

The special Christian Endeavor services will be held at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow evening under the leadership of the Reverend Frank W. Stanton. Mr. Stanton was a former member of the church, but recently was ordained pastor of the Baptist Church at Sidney Center, N. Y. There will be a special music programme, conducted by Miss Eva Paul, and the following young women will sing: The Misses Agnes McCay, Grace Paul, Meta Elbert, Annie Redrix, Mary Lee Lester, Florence Pickett and Carrie Ault. At the morning service one of the members of the Sunday school, Harry Hale, will be baptized at 10 a.m. He is 10 years old and is about to join the navy.

The Reverend Doctor C. L. Scofield, the great Northfield preacher and teacher, will speak to men Sunday at 4 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association building, Grand and Franklin avenues.

The Reverend N. C. Schaefer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, will speak at the Second Avenue Reformed Church to-morrow morning. Doctor Schaefer is attending the convention of the National Educational Association.

The Reverend B. S. Taylor of New York will begin a special series of meetings at the Union Tent, Avenue and Locust street, to-morrow morning.

President George A. Gates of the Pomona College, California, will speak at the Hyde Park Congregational Church. Mr. Gates was one of the speakers at the National Educational Association Convention.

The annual Sunday-school picnic of the Cots Brilliante Presbyterian Church will be held to-day at Forest Park.

Reopening and dedicatory services will be held at the Carondelet Christian Church to-morrow. The minister will be Rev. Dr. M. Michael W. Pittman and O. E. Scott. A special music programme has also been arranged for the service.

The Reverend Doctor Boyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has gone on his vacation. The services to-morrow will be conducted by the Reverend Doctor Manly J. Breckin.

The Reverend Doctor W. H. P. Faunce, president of Brown University and former pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, will preach at the Delmar Avenue Baptist Church to-morrow morning.

The formal dedication of the Women's Christian Temperance Union ice-water fountain at the World's Fair will take place this afternoon.

English services will be held to-morrow evening at the Little Bethel Bethlehem Church, the Rev. C. L. Janzen, pastor, Salisbury street and Flairissant Avenue, by the Reverend E. Biogener of Evangelical Free Church. Services will be conducted on the first Sunday of each month in future.

A patriotic service will be conducted in the Lindell Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow evening. "The American Flag," a cantata by Antonio Dvorak, will be a special feature of the occasion.

Evangelistic services will be conducted to-morrow evening on the roof garden of the Woods' Fox Valley Hotel. Charles Force, assisted by other Christian Endeavours, An address will be made by the Reverend R. B. Holser, secretary of the Evangelical Endeavor Union. Special music will be a feature of the service.

The Reverend William Smith will celebrate the first anniversary of his pastorate of the Memorial Congregational Church to-morrow. During the last year the church has made favorable progress in all the departments.

Services at the Christian Endeavor House will be conducted to-morrow afternoon by the Reverend Doctor W. F. McMurry, and in the evening Mrs. Kite Waller Barrett of the Florence Crittenton Mission will speak on "That Woman Jezebel."

The Reverend Columbus Polk Goodson, pastor of the King's Highway Cumberland Presbyterian Church, will spend a four weeks' vacation early next week. During his absence the pulpit will be supplied by the Reverend R. C. Dobson, associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Doctor H. H. Douglas of Mount Vernon, Ill., formerly a decided missionary of the Illinois Conference of the Presbyterian Church, will preach during the coming week in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

Conferences in the interest of temperance evangelism will be conducted to-morrow in the afternoon at the Emporium Hotel. A number of these meetings will be held in St. Louis during the period of the World's Fair.

Delegation services of the Baptist Women's Missionary headquarters at the Fair will be held that afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the National Council of the Presbyterian Church will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

The Reverend J. L. Glasecock of Clinton Hill has been elected to the ministry in the Hutchinson Mission tent, Twenty-second and Locust streets.

The opening service will be this evening and continue for ten days. All-day meetings will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," in the forenoon, afternoon and evening. There will be three services each Sunday at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The Reverend Doctor J. A. Burrow, who is to preach at Centenary Church on Sunday evening, is one of the brightest young men in the ministry. He has within a few weeks of being elected Envoy League secretary at the last General Conference, and a paper, "Christian Methodist," is one of the most original and specially religious publications of the country.

The Reverend A. B. Hunter of Chattanooga, Tenn., will be the soloist at Centenary Church Sunday evening. Doctor Hunter with his friend, Doctor Burrow of Nashville, Tenn., are spending some days in the city visiting the World's Fair.

Centenary Methodist Church, Sixteenth

and Pine streets, has been the home of several Methodist preachers during the week, who appreciate greatly the hospitality of the Centenary ladies in providing them comfortable beds free of charge.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK.

"Ways of Consecrating Ourselves to Our Country." (Rom. viii, 1-7; 1 Peter II, 13-17.)

BY AMON R. WELLS.

The special Christian Endeavor services will be held at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow evening under the leadership of the Reverend Frank W. Stanton. Mr. Stanton was a former member of the church, but recently was ordained pastor of the Baptist Church at Sidney Center, N. Y. There will be a special music programme, conducted by Miss Eva Paul, and the following young women will sing: The Misses Agnes McCay, Grace Paul, Meta Elbert, Annie Redrix, Mary Lee Lester, Florence Pickett and Carrie Ault. At the morning service one of the members of the Sunday school, Harry Hale, will be baptized at 10 a.m. He is 10 years old and is about to join the navy.

The Reverend Doctor C. L. Scofield, the great Northfield preacher and teacher, will speak to men Sunday at 4 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association building, Grand and Franklin avenues.

The Reverend N. C. Schaefer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, will speak at the Second Avenue Reformed Church to-morrow morning. Doctor Schaefer is attending the convention of the National Educational Association.

The Reverend B. S. Taylor of New York will begin a special series of meetings at the Union Tent, Avenue and Locust street, to-morrow morning.

President George A. Gates of the Pomona College, California, will speak at the Hyde Park Congregational Church. Mr. Gates was one of the speakers at the National Educational Association Convention.

The annual Sunday-school picnic of the Cots Brilliante Presbyterian Church will be held to-day at Forest Park.

Reopening and dedicatory services will be held at the Carondelet Christian Church to-morrow. The minister will be Rev. Dr. M. Michael W. Pittman and O. E. Scott. A special music programme has also been arranged for the service.

The Reverend Doctor Boyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has gone on his vacation. The services to-morrow will be conducted by the Reverend Doctor Manly J. Breckin.

The Reverend Doctor W. H. P. Faunce, president of Brown University and former pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, will preach at the Delmar Avenue Baptist Church to-morrow morning.

The formal dedication of the Women's Christian Temperance Union ice-water fountain at the World's Fair will take place this afternoon.

English services will be held to-morrow evening at the Little Bethel Bethlehem Church, the Rev. C. L. Janzen, pastor, Salisbury street and Flairissant Avenue, by the Reverend E. Biogener of Evangelical Free Church. Services will be conducted on the first Sunday of each month in future.

A patriotic service will be conducted in the Lindell Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow evening. "The American Flag," a cantata by Antonio Dvorak, will be a special feature of the occasion.

Evangelistic services will be conducted to-morrow evening on the roof garden of the Woods' Fox Valley Hotel. Charles Force, assisted by other Christian Endeavours, An address will be made by the Reverend R. B. Holser, secretary of the Evangelical Endeavor Union. Special music will be a feature of the service.

The Reverend William Smith will celebrate the first anniversary of his pastorate of the Memorial Congregational Church to-morrow. During the last year the church has made favorable progress in all the departments.

Services at the Christian Endeavor House will be conducted to-morrow afternoon by the Reverend Doctor W. F. Faunce, and in the evening Mrs. Kite Waller Barrett of the Florence Crittenton Mission will speak on "That Woman Jezebel."

The Reverend Columbus Polk Goodson, pastor of the King's Highway Cumberland Presbyterian Church, will spend a four weeks' vacation early next week. During his absence the pulpit will be supplied by the Reverend R. C. Dobson, associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Doctor H. H. Douglas of Mount Vernon, Ill., formerly a decided missionary of the Illinois Conference of the Presbyterian Church, will preach during the coming week in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

Conferences in the interest of temperance evangelism will be conducted to-morrow in the afternoon at the Emporium Hotel. A number of these meetings will be held in St. Louis during the period of the World's Fair.

Delegation services of the Baptist Women's Missionary headquarters at the Fair will be held that afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the National Council of the Presbyterian Church will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

The Reverend J. L. Glasecock of Clinton Hill has been elected to the ministry in the Hutchinson Mission tent, Twenty-second and Locust streets.

The opening service will be this evening and continue for ten days. All-day meetings will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," in the forenoon, afternoon and evening. There will be three services each Sunday at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The Reverend Doctor J. A. Burrow, who is to preach at Centenary Church on Sunday evening, is one of the brightest young men in the ministry. He has within a few weeks of being elected Envoy League secretary at the last General Conference, and a paper, "Christian Methodist," is one of the most original and specially religious publications of the country.

The Reverend A. B. Hunter of Chattanooga, Tenn., will be the soloist at Centenary Church Sunday evening. Doctor Hunter with his friend, Doctor Burrow of Nashville, Tenn., are spending some days in the city visiting the World's Fair.

Centenary Methodist Church, Sixteenth

and Pine streets, has been the home of several Methodist preachers during the week, who appreciate greatly the hospitality of the Centenary ladies in providing them comfortable beds free of charge.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK.

"Ways of Consecrating Ourselves to Our Country." (Rom. viii, 1-7; 1 Peter II, 13-17.)

BY AMON R. WELLS.

The special Christian Endeavor services will be held at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow evening under the leadership of the Reverend Frank W. Stanton. Mr. Stanton was a former member of the church, but recently was ordained pastor of the Baptist Church at Sidney Center, N. Y. There will be a special music programme, conducted by Miss Eva Paul, and the following young women will sing: The Misses Agnes McCay, Grace Paul, Meta Elbert, Annie Redrix, Mary Lee Lester, Florence Pickett and Carrie Ault. At the morning service one of the members of the Sunday school, Harry Hale, will be baptized at 10 a.m. He is 10 years old and is about to join the navy.

The Reverend Doctor C. L. Scofield, the great Northfield preacher and teacher, will speak to men Sunday at 4 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association building, Grand and Franklin avenues.

The Reverend N. C. Schaefer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, will speak at the Second Avenue Reformed Church to-morrow morning. Doctor Schaefer is attending the convention of the National Educational Association.

The Reverend B. S. Taylor of New York will begin a special series of meetings at the Union Tent, Avenue and Locust street, to-morrow morning.

President George A. Gates of the Pomona College, California, will speak at the Hyde Park Congregational Church. Mr. Gates was one of the speakers at the National Educational Association Convention.

The annual Sunday-school picnic of the Cots Brilliante Presbyterian Church will be held to-day at Forest Park.

Reopening and dedicatory services will be held at the Carondelet Christian Church to-morrow. The minister will be Rev. Dr. M. Michael W. Pittman and O. E. Scott. A special music programme has also been arranged for the service.

The Reverend Doctor Boyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has gone on his vacation. The services to-morrow will be conducted by the Reverend Doctor Manly J. Breckin.

The Reverend Doctor W. H. P. Faunce, president of Brown University and former pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, will preach at the Delmar Avenue Baptist Church to-morrow morning.

The formal dedication of the Women's Christian Temperance Union ice-water fountain at the World's Fair will take place this afternoon.

English services will be held to-morrow evening at the Little Bethel Bethlehem Church, the Rev. C. L. Janzen, pastor, Salisbury street and Flairissant Avenue, by the Reverend E. Biogener of Evangelical Free Church. Services will be conducted on the first Sunday of each month in future.

A patriotic service will be conducted in the Lindell Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow evening. "The American Flag," a cantata by Antonio Dvorak, will be a special feature of the occasion.

Evangelistic services will be conducted to-morrow evening on the roof garden of the Woods' Fox Valley Hotel. Charles Force, assisted by other Christian Endeavours, An address will be made by the Reverend R. B. Holser, secretary of the Evangelical Endeavor Union. Special music will be a feature of the service.

The Reverend William Smith will celebrate the first anniversary of his pastorate of the Memorial Congregational Church to-morrow. During the last year the church has made favorable progress in all the departments.

Services at the Christian Endeavor House will be conducted to-morrow afternoon by the Reverend Doctor W. F. Faunce, and in the evening Mrs. Kite Waller Barrett of the Florence Crittenton Mission will speak on "That Woman Jezebel."

The Reverend Columbus Polk Goodson, pastor of the King's Highway Cumberland Presbyterian Church, will spend a four weeks' vacation early next week. During his absence the pulpit will be supplied by the Reverend R. C. Dobson, associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Doctor H. H. Douglas of Mount Vernon, Ill., formerly a decided missionary of the Illinois Conference of the Presbyterian Church, will preach during the coming week in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

Conferences in the interest of temperance evangelism will be conducted to-morrow in the afternoon at the Emporium Hotel. A number of these meetings will be held in St. Louis during the period of the World's Fair.

Delegation services of the Baptist Women's Missionary headquarters at the Fair will be held that afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the National Council of the Presbyterian Church will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," at Ninth and Carroll streets.

The Reverend J. L. Glasecock of Clinton Hill has been elected to the ministry in the Hutchinson Mission tent, Twenty-second and Locust streets.

The opening service will be this evening and continue for ten days. All-day meetings will be held in the tent "Glad Tidings," in the forenoon, afternoon and evening. There will be three services each Sunday at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The Reverend Doctor J. A. Burrow, who is to preach at Centenary Church on Sunday evening, is one of the brightest young men in the ministry. He has within a few weeks of being elected Envoy League secretary at the last General Conference, and a paper, "Christian Methodist," is one of the most original and specially religious publications of the country.

The Reverend A. B. Hunter of Chattanooga, Tenn., will be the soloist at Centenary Church Sunday evening. Doctor Hunter with his friend, Doctor Burrow of Nashville, Tenn., are spending some days in the city visiting the World's Fair.

Centenary Methodist Church, Sixteenth

and Pine streets, has been the home of several Methodist preachers during the week, who appreciate greatly the hospitality of the Centenary ladies in providing them comfortable beds free of charge.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK.

"Ways of Consecrating Ourselves to Our Country." (Rom. viii, 1-7; 1 Peter II, 13-17.)

BY AMON R. WELLS.

The special Christian Endeavor services will be held at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow evening under the leadership of the Reverend Frank W. Stanton. Mr. Stanton was a former member of the church, but recently was ordained pastor of the Baptist Church at Sidney Center, N. Y. There will be a special music programme, conducted by Miss Eva Paul, and the following young women will sing: The Misses Agnes McCay, Grace Paul, Meta Elbert, Annie Redrix, Mary Lee Lester, Florence Pickett and Carrie Ault. At the morning service one of the members of the Sunday school, Harry Hale, will be baptized at 10 a.m. He is 10 years old and is about to join the navy.

The Reverend Doctor C. L. Scofield, the great Northfield preacher and teacher, will speak to men Sunday at 4 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association building, Grand and Franklin avenues.

The Reverend N. C. Schaefer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, will speak at the Second Avenue Reformed Church to-morrow morning. Doctor Schaefer is attending the convention of the National Educational Association.

The Reverend B. S. Taylor of New York will begin a special series of meetings at the Union Tent, Avenue and Locust street, to-morrow morning.

President George A. Gates of the Pomona College, California, will speak at the Hyde Park Congregational Church. Mr. Gates was one of the speakers at the National Educational Association Convention.

The annual Sunday-school picnic of the Cots Brilliante Presbyterian Church will be held to-day at Forest Park.

Reopening and dedicatory services will be held at the Carondelet Christian Church to-morrow. The minister will be Rev. Dr. M. Michael W. Pittman and O. E. Scott. A special music programme has also been arranged for the service.

The Reverend Doctor Boyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has gone on his vacation. The services to-morrow will be conducted by the Reverend Doctor Manly J. Breckin.

The Reverend Doctor W. H. P. Faunce, president of Brown University and former pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, will preach at the Delmar Avenue Baptist Church to-morrow morning.